

In the Healing That We Seek

Words & music © A. Baer, 2016

arr: S.Porter

meter: 7796D

F C B \flat

In the heal - ing that we seek, or sup - port we need when When in suff - 'ring we're a - lone, or en - coun - ter hearts of
There are scars that we in - flict, when our scorn - ful tongues af -
In our an - guish and our pain, God does not un - moved re -

F B \flat F Gm 7

weak, can we find re - lief from bleak des - pair or an - swers to our stone, we know e - ven in our bro - ken - ness, God does not love us flict; yet if words can hurt then words can heal and in - jur - y re - main, but will act to bind life's ran - dom strands through help - ing arms and

C F B \flat Gm 7

prayers? But love builds up so that we may en - dure ad - ver - si - less. Not a pun - ish - ment to bear; God will work through those who peal; or if so - cial struc - tures wound, leav - ing dig - ni - ty im - hands. Though the ou - ter fades a - way, in - ner faith re - news each

C F Am B \flat Gm F

ty, and des - pite the rest - less winds of chance, a seed of hope im - plants.
care, just as Christ re - stored tor - men - ted souls and made their spir - its whole. pugned, can we re - cog - nize the part we play and shape a bet - ter way?
day, when we look past the in - firm - i - ty and deep - er val - ue see.