

Why Did It Have to Come to This?

words & music: © A. Baer, 2006 & 2013 arr. S. Porter meter: 8888D

Why did it have to come to this? A mis - sion end - ed by a What count - less sav - iours we've for - got, but one that's cru - ci - fied is It may have not been Ju - das' plan to cruel - ly put to death this kiss. The One whose pow'r could be com - plete, in - stead takes towel and wash - es not. Why do we need a death to save the Word for res - cue from the man. Per - haps he sought to force his hand; mes - si - ahs must rule by com - feet. The Christ that e - ven winds o - bey, but could not ang - ry mass - es grave? God does not want this sac - ri - fice; to turn from ha - tred would suf - mand! We look to might to solve our woes and reign tri - um - phant ov - er sway. And still he knew what lay a - head: an out - come oth - ers would have fled.

fice; if ways of peace we would dis - dain, then we be - tray our Lord a - gain. foes. But God would want a diff - rent end: not king or ma - jes - ty, but friend.