

When the Child Wakes

Words & music: © A. Baer, 2007; arr. S. Porter

meter: 7676D

D A D G D

When the child wakes and dawn breaks, as we welcome the
See how humble the stable, dis-regarded, ig-
When the times need a vision, when the hour cries for

A D A D G

morn, then our eyes will be opened to a world that's renored. Yet from lowly beginnings comes a saviour and hope, we will nurture compassion and our lives grow in

A G D Em7 D

born; to a joy-ful to-mor-row and a fu-ture that's lord. Did the ma-gi or shep-herds grasp the sign they be-scope. For the Lamb will be Shep-herd as Good News is pro-

A D A D Em7 D A7 D

clear, where we live in the Christ-light, free from hate, free from fear.
held, when the low were ex-alt-ed and the po-wei-ful felled?
claimed: when we give of our-selves, then we'll see God's love sus-tained.